To whom it may concern,

In the event of my demise, I _____ authorize _____ to utilize the semen specimens that I have stored at International Cryogenics, Inc. for the purpose of becoming pregnant. The above named person will assume responsibility for all new and past due storage fees due on the account if they choose to continue storage of the specimens. All contracts that were signed by the client depositor will still be legal and binding with the assigned recipient of the specimens. A copy of the death certificate and the original signed and notarized copy of this letter must be presented to International Cryogenics, Inc. prior to the transfer of ownership of the client depositor's semen specimens. The specimens stored by the client depositor were tested and screened for use on the spouse or intimate partner of the client depositor. They have not under gone the proper testing for use on a surrogate or any other designated recipient.
